Subject: Mr. Barber's comment of 3-5-13

Mr. Barber needs a lesson in basic microeconomics. An industry, which is not self-sustaining and can only be sustained with subsidies, is a tax on society as a whole. In short, he is shilling for a rent seeking, tax farming special interest at great cost to his constituents. If he cared about the latter, he would be criticizing the ACC for not entirely doing away with the renewable mandate.

Yours, Lawrence D. Glenn
